DATE AS POSTMARKED

Dear Graduate

Congratulations on successfully completing your programme of study.

Statement of Academic Record

Please find enclosed your Statement of Academic Record (transcript), which contains details of your award. If you attended the graduation ceremony, you will have received your parchment in person. If you did not attend, your parchment is also enclosed. (Please note that transcripts are not issued to students who have completed Research degrees).

If you wish to send your transcript to a prospective employer or educational institution, you are advised to request the recipient to return the document to you or to scan the document to them. Should you require further copies of your transcript, a transcript request form and associated fees can be found at https://www.ulster.ac.uk/transcripts.

Please note that copies of Parchments are only available under certain circumstances such as loss or damage beyond reasonable use.

In the event of missing data or any other queries relating to the transcript, please contact your Course/ Subject Director in the first instance.

Higher Education Achievement Report (HEAR)

If you were enrolled on a full-time undergraduate degree course, or integrated Master's degree at Belfast, Coleraine or Magee, you will be issued with a HEAR (Higher Education Achievement Report) in due course. The HEAR is your personal enhanced electronic transcript which you can also use to send to an employer. Information on accessing your HEAR is available at https://www.ulster.ac.uk/hear.

Becoming part of the Ulster University Alumni community

As a graduate of Ulster University, you can avail of a range of benefits and services from the University including free library membership, additional career support, replacement parchments and much more. Further details can be found in the Benefits and Services section at ulster.ac.uk/alumni. Also, please consider joining UU Connects, your gateway to the UU community no matter where you are in the world.

May I take this opportunity to wish you every success for the future.

Yours faithfully
